

FREEDOM for Global Literacy: Rebuilding Humanity

Humankind = World's Peoples either healing & remembering to reunite or sustaining ecocidal oppressive sociopathic societies

When children considered non-white or black learn how white dominance works, they don't hurt each other, become equipped to survive / thrive without acting as defenders of white supremacy, and collaborate across lines of difference for world betterment. When children considered white learn how white dominance and other oppressive ecocidal violent global illiteracies work, they are afforded a choice to either sustain these evils or join the world in creating justice for all.
